

Contents

Special Issue: Camp Governance: (Dis)Order, Power, and Plurality

Guest editors: Annett Bochmann and Andrea Purdeková

Introductory Essay

- Comparative camp governance: Power, autonomy, and pluralism 375
Annett Bochmann and Andrea Purdeková

Special Issue Articles

- Defying Guantánamo: Resistance to indefinite detention and torture 388
in a prison camp
Frithjof Nungesser
- The smart camp as classroom: Control, education, and agency 420
in Muslim internment in Northwest China
Darren Byler
- Re-education camp as a spatial governance form: Separation, 440
structure, and staging in Rwanda's ingando camps
Andrea Purdeková
- Deconstructing the concept of camp governance toward 459
practice-based theory building on post-disaster relocation
Christine Gibb, Kaira Zoe Albuero-Cañete and Kanako Iuchi
- The power of materiality: Local orders, interaction and global 496
governance
Annett Bochmann

Book Reviews

Pandemic-Era Civil Disorder in Post-Communist EU Member States 517
Joanna Rak, reviewed by Roman Bäcker

Graceful Resistance: How Capoeiristas Use Their Art for Activism 518 and Community Engagement
Lauren Miller Griffith, reviewed by Nancy L. Watterson

Corrigendum

Corrigendum to “Comparative camp governance: 521 Power, autonomy, and pluralism”